This advertisement is being written in the salesroom of the manufacturer. where the writer had to go for descriptions and details of the garments, as it will be far into the night before all of them can be delivered to us. The above is written merely to let you know how new the goods are. They come straight from the maker's hands to us this morning - and every one of them is as fresh as the bloom on a plum.

Looking at the beauties depending from dozens of racks, the writer turned to the head of the firm and asked why he had sold such elegant and desirable products at 50 cents on the dollar. His reply is the only explanation needed to show that certain conditions create tremendous values. He

"Our organization manufactured prodigally. The rains of early April affected retail trade untavorably throughout the country, and our customers did not re-order—as we had expected they would do. That brought us to the brink of May with a big stock. Autumn business had to be looked after. For us Spring and Summer were over. And so we were very glad to sell Macy's everything in our stock rooms at half prices."

Among the goods that you may now secure at fifty cents on the dollar are

Tailored Suits

Suits made of cheviots, etamines, brilliantines, homespuns, Scotch tweeds, broadc oth, Vene ians and black taffeta. Blouse and Eton styles, plan tailor-made or trimmed with braids and moire bands, seven-gore flare and flounced skirts. There are also a few very smart Walking Suits, with jaunty cutaway, jackets, heavily stitched.

Principally castors, grays and blues. All the Jackets of the Suits are lined with silk-and nearly all the skirtsmany being made over silk drop.

Ulsters and Ragians

Ulsters and Raglans—you know the fine flowing, handsome, all-enveloping garments—ideal for travelling. Light and very serviceable. Made of brilliantines—crisp and unwrinkable; glorias -- shimmering with the lustre of burnished metal; taffeta; rain-proof covert and cravenette-black, blue, brown and tan-

Single and double-breasted fly-fronts; half-fitted backs, p'ain coat and double-cape collars, beil-shaped sleeves, turned-over cuffs, some are perfectly plain, with the exception of heavy stitching; others are strapped with taffeta-plain or flounced style.

The Brilliantine Raglans are worth $22.50; our $11.98

The Coverts and Cravenettes are worth $25.00; our $11.74 The Glorias and Taffetas are worth $35.00; our $16.49

Women's Coats

Women's Coats, made of covert cloth in all the best shades -from darkish castor to soft, dainty light fawn-the very newest shapes, including tight-fitting and fly dip-front effects-lined with white taffeta, self-colored taffeta or rich

Also black cheviots and unfinished worsteds, lined with white, gray and black silk.
